

Breaking News Script

Produced by Regina Kadima

U.S. Expands Naval Deployment to Caribbean as Tensions with Venezuela Rise

TEASE / OPEN

- “A show of force in the Caribbean — the U.S. is deploying warships as tensions escalate with Venezuela.”

GRAPHIC

- U.S. NAVAL DEPLOYMENT — CARIBBEAN

VO / PKG

- The U.S. Navy has positioned multiple major warships near Venezuela, citing counter-narcotics efforts.
- Among them: Arleigh Burke–class destroyers and an amphibious group carrying Marines and aircraft.
- Venezuela condemned the move as a provocation, heightening regional tensions.

TAG / OUT

- “What might this mean for relations with Colombia and other neighbors — plus how drug routes could shift in response.”