Script 1: U.S. Government Shutdown Deepens, Layoffs Begin

TEASE / OPEN

- “We start tonight with a nation in limbo — a federal shutdown stretching beyond a week, major layoffs already underway, and no clear end in sight.”

GRAPHIC

- GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN — Day 8

VO / PKG

- The U.S. government shutdown, triggered on October 1 after Congress failed to pass a funding deal, has entered its ninth day.
- More than 4,000 federal employees have received layoff notices across multiple agencies.
- Military personnel continue working without pay, while nonessential staff remain furloughed.
- Critical deadlines loom: nutritional assistance programs may run out mid-month, and key economic reports are delayed, leaving markets and policymakers flying blind.

TAG / OUT

- “Up next: How the shutdown is rippling through air travel and veterans’ groups — and how Congress might break the deadlock.”
